

Friendship Knot Quilters' Guild
July 15, 2019

President Cathy Lane called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. Cathy thanked the Fantasy Quilters for being our hostesses tonight. She also recommended the quilt show Guild members have at Plymouth Harbor through September 13. Everyone is welcome to stop by and see it.

The June Guild meeting minutes are online. They were approved as presented.

There is no Treasurer's report this month.

Second Vice-President Ellen Simon reviewed the summer programs. She also noted there are still openings in the November classes. See the website for description.

Newsletter: The deadline for submitting information to Jane Sanks for the newsletter is the 25th of each month.

Charity Initiative: Fidget Quilts. Please check the newsletter for ideas. These are much appreciated by the Alzheimer's Association. They distribute them to facilities in the area who take care of people who have dementia.

KidzQuilts and Pet Beds are ongoing charities. Information is in the newsletter and on the website. 27 table runners are being delivered to Habitat for Humanity!

Quilt Show 2021: Katie Metheny, Quilt Show Chair, showed us another beautiful block for the Donor Quilt. Plans are coming along well. Let Katie know how you would like to be a part of making the show a success.

Membership: 51 members were present tonight. There were no renewals or guests.

Summer Retreat: Kathy Dotson reviewed the plans for the retreat. There are still a few spots left if anyone is still interested in attending.

Next Board Meeting: Friday, July 26 at 1:30 at Day Springs.

The business portion of the meeting was adjourned at 7:13 p.m.

Tonight's program: Modern Quilt Guild Webinar: "Making Traditional Modern". Thank you goes to Karen and Craig Clark for setting up the audio/visual. Popcorn was enjoyed by all!

Show and tell followed.

Respectfully submitted,
Marcia Slocum, Co-Secretary
