

FRIENDSHIP KNOT QUILTERS' GUILD
MEMBERS MEETING
JULY 20, 2020

President Cathy Lane called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. This meeting was held via Zoom videoconferencing due to the COVID-19 pandemic. For the foreseeable future, all of the Guild meetings will be held this way. As soon as it is safe to do so, meetings in person will be resumed.

First on tonight's agenda was our speaker: Meg Cox joined the guild meeting by Zoom from the basement in her home in New Jersey. Her lecture was titled "Quilt Journalist Tells All." A big thank you goes to Ellen Simon for making all of the arrangements for this excellent experience. As Ellen announced in the July newsletter, if you want to know more about Meg, you can sign up for her newsletter or read her blog by going to Megcox.com.

Following the lecture, Cathy led the business portion of the meeting. Again, she announced that the meetings will be held by Zoom for several months. Please read "Come Zoom with Us" in the newsletter. Cathy wrote a very informative article to help newbies get started on Zoom and useful tips for everyone.

The newsletter deadline is July 25th and is always the 25th of each month.

The summer retreat scheduled for this month was cancelled.

Our beautiful Raffle Quilt will have a lucky winner whose ticket will be drawn on March 13, 2021 at 3:00 p.m. This has always been a huge money maker for the guild, so if members will please continue to sell tickets to their friends and family and even put something on Facebook about it this will make a difference. Any questions about this, please contact Elva Farrell or Denise Collado.

Charity: KidzQuilts participants have been busy. They donated 115 quilts in June!

Pet Beds: Jane Sanks has had some pet bed making socially distanced get togethers on her lanai. Please let her know if you are interested in doing this.

Show and Tell followed the business portion of the meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:20 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Marcia Slocum
Co-Secretary
